Subject: Anniversary

Dear Dr Bodrov, dear Alexei,

On behalf of the Faculty of Theology and the Faculty Board at Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, it is my pleasure to congratulate you with the 25th anniversary of St Andrew's Biblical Theological Institute. In all its activities your institute has achieved an indispensable contribution to ecumenical dialogue and mutual understanding between Christians in East and West. The Faculty is glad to be able to contribute to your efforts through your close collaboration with Dr Katya Tolstaya, Director of the Institute for the Academic Study of Eastern Christianity at the Vrije Universiteit.

I wish you and St Andrew's may continue your important work for many years to come.

Sincerely,

Professor Wim Janse
Dean of the Faculty of Theology
