

Dear Alexei,

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary celebrations being held today at your Institute, we are delighted and honored to send you our most sincere congratulations.

Given the challenges facing today's world, we shall endeavor to go forward with courage and hope to find ways in which different faith communities might coexist and flourish.

May the work of your Institute and all those engaged in that work be blessed on this great day of joy.

PISAI shares wholeheartedly in your joy and your endeavors.
