International Conference
Christianity in a Post-Modern World:
To 100th anniversary of Metropolitan Anthony Bloom
(Moscow, Russia, 25 September 2014)

This year we celebrate the 100th anniversary of Metropolitan Anthony of Sourozh (1914–2003), an outstanding pastor, preacher and theologian, who was also one of the first patrons of St. Andrew's Biblical Theological Institute. In his numerous homilies and talks Metropolitan Anthony tried to make the Gospel understandable and accessible to today's people, for which reason his works remain an invaluable guide for everyone who seeks in Christ answers to the questions that contemporary world (which we often call "post-modern") poses before us.

In the course of the Anniversary Conference, the following questions are planned to be addressed.

- Christianity in front of post-modern culture: new challenges and new chances;
- Christian mission in the 21st century;
- The diversity of Christianity and the problem of Christian unity in the 21st century;
- Christianity and the dialogue of religions.

Those who wish to present a paper should send a summary (200 words at most) by email to St. Andrew's Institute by 1 September 2014. The Organizing Committee selects papers for the Conference and sends invitations to the speakers. Papers are scheduled for 20 minutes each. The working language of the conference will be Russian. Summaries should be sent to:
